

Alexandria Gazette

TUESDAY EVENING, APRIL 25

THE INFLUENCE OF A PRESIDENT.—Now, if any man has observed the influence of the head man of a corporation, he will understand and appreciate what we are about to say in regard to the influence of a President, in molding to himself the men around him. As is the president of a railroad, so every officer and employee, by rule. The loose or the sound morals begin at the top, and run down through the whole. As is the editor-in-chief of a great newspaper, so are the subordinates. Men who stand at the head of great organizations or great interests, bring around them naturally men of their own kind, who take their action, and their tone in character and motive, from them. Like master, like man—an old proverb, based upon profound and mature observation. Now, it is just as impossible to have a high-toned Administration, with a low-toned President, as it is to have a high-toned household with a loafer at its head. The thing is unnatural and impossible. In the next Presidential election, the people really desire, we believe, to vote for, and elect, a gentleman and a statesman—a man who will associate himself to Government only with gentlemen and statesmen, and who will send only such to represent the Government abroad. This political and social tone at Washington is disgustingly low. It does not represent the people of America. It represents the party politicians of America, and them only. They are our bane and our disgrace; and if they are permitted to hold their influence through another Administration, we shall have ourselves to blame.—Dr. J. G. Holland; Scribner for May.

THE ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER will soon celebrate its centennial year. More than three quarters of a century ago it grew into life a creation of wants and needs of the people of this section of Virginia.

During all this period its prominent object has been to advance the interests of the people of whose life it is the daily chronicle. Its fortunes have been their fortunes; it has shared their prosperity and suffered in their disasters. Its inspiration has been the desire to forward the best interests of the community in which it is located, and its own measure of success has been purely material, inseparable from that of the community it aims to represent. When they grow rich it hopes for a reward commensurate with its labors. While they are poor it expects to work with them and for them, expecting to make their success the measure of its own.

The past of the Gazette is offered as an index of its future. It has never failed to avail itself promptly of all the improvements which come with the greater growth and more extended experience of journalism. Every year NEW FEATURES.

THE GAZETTE MEANS TO BE THE NEWSPAPER OF VIRGINIA. It will furnish daily a complete account, with superlatives only, of all the current news of the world.

As the interests of the people mainly center at home, no pains will be spared to chronicle all matters occurring in the city and neighborhood, carefully excluding unseemly expressions or gross narrative as unfit for a journal that is treasured at many thousand households of Virginia.

Special attention will be devoted to presenting, as well from original sources of information as from its exchanges, the news of Virginia, especially such as relate to the development of the resources of the State.

Its continuity to Washington gives the Gazette an early precedence over all the journals of the State in intelligence of the operations of the General Government, now of such vital importance to the people of the South. The proceedings of Congress, seldom so interesting as now, will be regularly reported in succinct form for its columns, but all matters of special interest in Virginia will be given in detail, and the full text of all bills of local interest will be given.

From the State Capital it will receive early and accurate accounts of the proceedings of the General Assembly and of all the operations of the State Government likely to interest the people.

In its Commercial columns the special feature will be promptness and accuracy. The farmers, drovers and commercial people of the State know they MAY DEPEND upon the Gazette.

Early and reliable reports of the Grain, Cattle, Hogs and other Markets will be furnished, and the prices and position of the stocks, which are the subjects of business transactions in this section of the country, carefully quoted.

The continual favors of those who have once used the Gazette as an advertising medium is a warrant for saying that it pays to advertise in its columns. Never before did it pay so well to tell the public what is for sale.

FLOOR STAIN.—We have just prepared by our new recipe a large supply of the above useful and popular article. It renders the floor of a rich, dark, lustrous color. For stairways, halls or the floors of rooms it is desired to keep uncarpeted during the summer season it is especially adapted. It is prepared already for immediate use, will dry hard and firm in the course of a few hours, and can be applied by any one with a brush or sponge. We are permitted to refer to a number of our customers who have used it with entire satisfaction. Shipped to the country in any quantity desired. Sold by the pint or gallon.

ENCOURAGE HOME MANUFACTURE.
I am now manufacturing a good and cheap PAINT, of several colors, the body of which is equal to Lead and Oil, which for its richness, stability, and economy, will be found very suitable as well as economical, and an improvement over other cheap mixed Paints now in the market. For brick walls with a northern exposure it will act as a preventive to dampness. For iron it makes a solid and lasting coating, impervious to moisture and a preventive of rust. Being of various shades of color, the cornice and trimmings can be painted to suit. This Paint has been used by one railroad company and by many of the farmers in this vicinity, and is highly recommended by all who have tried it. Price, single gallon, 75c; 10 gallons $7 per gal. 1 bbl, or 40 gallons, 60c per gal. Call and examine samples at 85 King st., under Sarepta Hall.
mh 31 W. F. CREIGHTON.

THE BALTIMORE READY MIXED PAINT.—The best and cheapest ready mixed Paint extant. In color it is a rich, dark, reddish brown. It is especially adapted for painting railroad depot buildings and station houses, brick walls, weather boarding, iron and wood lencus, barns, stables, dairies or other out houses. It is also a capital roofing Paint for either wood or metal. Price per gallon $1.20, in 10 gallon tins $1 per gallon, or in 40 gallon bbls 90c per gallon. Shipped to the country in any quantity desired. This Paint has been in use at Baltimore for over four years and has given entire satisfaction to all who have tried it. We have secured the exclusive agency for this section of Virginia.
